

Agenda announced! ResponsibleSteel Forum III, Memphis, Tennessee

ResponsibleSteel Forum III: Shaping the future of responsible steel

Memphis, Tennessee, 30th October to 1st November, 2022

We'd love you to join us for our vital multi-stakeholder event bringing together the leaders shaping, accelerating, and driving forward steel decarbonisation and broader responsible practices - ResponsibleSteel Forum III: Shaping the future of responsible steel.

The ResponsibleSteel Forum III: Shaping the future of responsible steel is taking place in Memphis, Tennessee from 30th October to 1st November 2022.

Why attend?

We know that the only way to make real, lasting change is through collective action. And we know the time for action is now.

You'll hear from the best minds in the industry about the most important challenges and opportunities facing the whole steel supply chain, at present and in the coming years.

Some of the key themes that we'll be covering at the event include:

1. Growing the demand for ResponsibleSteel certification - in partnership with SteelZero.
2. Creating a united supply chain - why collective action is crucial for decarbonisation.
3. Finance focus - driving sustainability forward in a rapidly changing world.

We're excited to launch our agenda and will continue to keep you updated as speakers are announced.

Registration

We are delighted to offer ResponsibleSteel members and partners advance opportunity to register - please take advantage of this and register before 30th August 2022.
